

MARITIME HistoryNORTH

Maritime History North jointly with The National Museum of the Royal Navy, Historic Ships, the Society for Nautical Research and the Friends of Trincomalee present their Spring 2019 Conference on 6 April 2019

HMS Trincomalee and Pax Britannica in the 19th Century

The Conference will address HMS Trincomalee - her building, service, restoration and future.

0900 Registration and coffee/tea.

0930 Opening Address Captain RM Eddleston OBE RD* RNR

0945 The design and building of HMS Trincomalee Captain Eddleston

1015 The restoration of HMS Trincomalee Professor Andrew Lambert

1100 Tea and Coffee break

1120 The future of HMS Trincomalee as a National Asset plus an overview of Historic Ships
Speakers to be confirmed

1200-1330 Lunch and guided tours

Afternoon presentations: HMS Trincomalee - her service career.

1330 First Commission on the North America Station Professor Andrew Lambert

1415 The action between HMS Shannon, Trincomalee's sister ship, and USS Chesapeake.
Dr Tim Voelcker

1500 Tea and Coffee break

1520 Second Commission on the Pacific Station including her time as Flagship to Admiral Moresby.
Professor Eric Grove

1600 Close

The presentations will either be aboard HMS Trincomalee or in a function suite overlooking the ship dependant on numbers, as will the duration of the escorted tours.

Free parking is available on land adjacent to the ship. There is a Premier Inn on the dockside (Tel 01429 800957) and a Travelodge (0871 984 6504) both within easy walking distance of the ship.

Pre booking is essential. See Ticket Application form attached.